

HOLLYWOOD BOWL SUMMER CONCERTS

1924

TO ALFRED HERTZ

His baton stirs! One feels a mountaineer.
As woodland notes breathe out, soft, sweet and clear,
Like skylarks just at dusk, or pollened bees,
Droning their homeward way on vagrom breeze—
'T'would almost seem the great god Pan were here!

Comes deeper note; winds rush and domineer.
Come strident cries; the heights rise boldly sheer.
Comes crashing storm; all Hell the Master frees—
His baton stirs!

The Bowl-held night is stilled, for very fear
The Lydian measures fail to reach the ear.
Swift echoes leap and shout when Hertz decrees—
Musicians guiding through great symphonies.
The terraced throng pays tribute with a tear.
His baton stirs!

Alice Harriman.

The President of the "Bowl"

Countless thousands know the public work of Mrs. J. J. Carter in Community Music, but few in Los Angeles knew her as Artie Mason during her childhood in Missouri. A graduate with honors from the State University and from the Kansas City Music Conservatory, she devoted herself earnestly to the piano. She married Dr. Joseph J. Carter, now an eminent physician in Los Angeles, and together they spent much time in Europe, where she became a Leschetitzky pupil during happy Vienna days.

Since coming to live in Hollywood, Mrs. Carter has been the "moving spirit" in a community expression through music. Weekly sings in the High School Auditorium have proved a starting point under her presidency, for a Choral Society, a Children's Chorus, a Community Orchestra and for annual Easter Sunrise and Christmas Eve Services in the Bowl in which tens of thousands participate each year.

After a recent countrywide "Quest for Community Ideals," Mrs. Carter returned more firmly convinced of the value of using every schoolhouse for a weekly forum and "sing," where, through a better understanding of each other and their problems and ideals, different groups might become truly "friends." In recognition of her great public service, Mrs. Carter was named chairman of the new Department of Community Music in the California Federation of Music Clubs. She was Music Chairman of the Hollywood Woman's Club and the founder of the Hollywood Musicians' Club. Her greatest triumph, however, is the establishing of these Summer Symphony Concerts in the Hollywood Bowl, where the world's finest music is brought to all people through this "great adventure in neighborliness."

We, her fellow-members in the Community Park and Art Association, are happy to pay this small tribute to our President, Artie Mason Carter.

THE STORY OF THE BOWL

F. W. BLANCHARD
Chairman
Management Committee

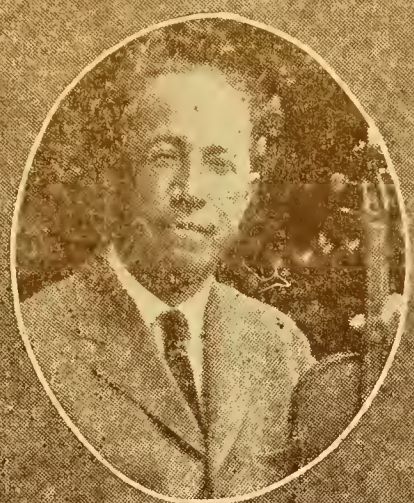

The Hollywood Bowl lies at the junction of Highland and Cahuenga Avenues in Hollywood and within the city limits of Los Angeles. It comprises an area of about sixty-five acres of hills and valleys, completely secluded from the noise and hurry of the busy streets surrounding it. The narrow, bottle-necked entrance widens rapidly into a level floor of about five acres, from which the hills rise five hundred feet on all sides. On the south side of the floor of the Bowl a gentle cup-shaped slope rises in a little valley. The mouth of this canyon is closed by the structure of the stage and work rooms. Benches, with a capacity of twenty-five thousand, have been placed on the slope in front of the stage.

This wonderful natural amphitheatre has been the scene of three seasons of Summer Concerts and of other events that have made community and musical history. The names and artistry of Alfred Hertz, Emil Oberhoffer, Alice Gentle, Mme. Schumann-Heink, Galli-Curci, Louis Graveure, Ossip Gabrilowitsch, Walter Henry Rothwell, Elizabeth Rothwell and many others have drawn many thousands to the Hollywood Bowl to worship at the shrine of music.

Annually on Easter and Christmas days, services are held here which thrill with the glory of the sunrise and the inspiration of beauty. Simply to number the uncounted thousands who come to have a part in this great expression of community life would not be sufficient to reflect its influence and destiny. Where it will lead no one can foretell, but all are conscious that there is in the Bowl a Spirit of Beauty and Friendliness that is uplifting and universal.

The development of the Hollywood Bowl and the upholding of its ideals have been the pleasure and responsibility of the several thousands who are members of the Community Park and Art Association, the non-profit organization which owns the property. Foremost among the devoted idealists, officers of the organization and workers who have been instrumental in the achievements here mentioned are Mrs. J. J. Carter, Mr. F. W. Blanchard, Mr. E. N. Martin, Mr. C. E. Toberman, Mrs. Chauncey Clarke, H. Ellis Reed, Dr. T. Percival Gerson.

THE STAGE

THE WHIRLPOOL

(On Hearing a Symphony in the Hollywood Bowl)

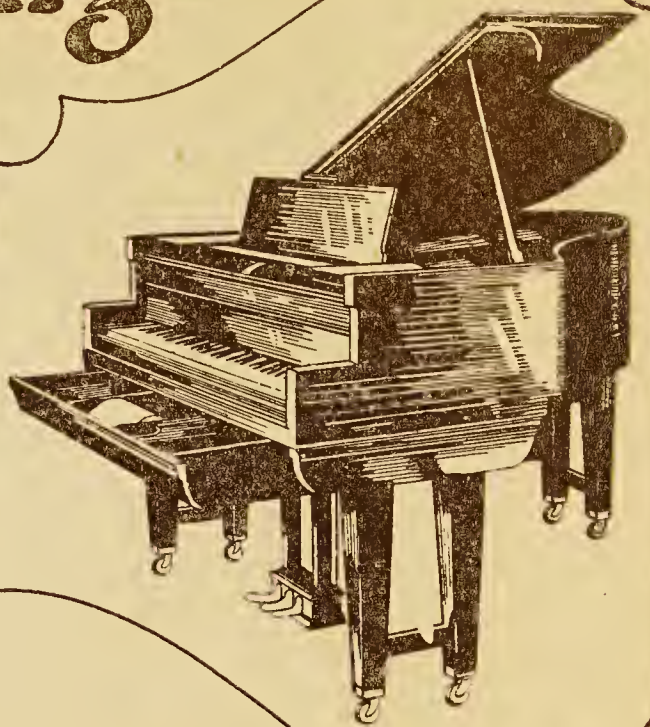

When congregations gather, row on row,
 Within the starlit mountain walls that bound
 This mightiest of theatres, and the ground
 Is shaken by tempestuous beauty, while around
 Us flow melodic tidal waters—lo!
 Beyond the last rim of the world we go,
 Swept onward by a throbbing undertow,
 A cosmic maelstrom of swift-whirling sound.

The surge of muted fiddles, and the clear
 Call of a flute grow faint from hill to hill;
 Dream-wafted waves of music break and spill
 Their rhythmic murmurs far and near,
 And ebb in the vast silence. Then we hear
 A cricket's elfin love song, sweet and shrill.

FITZGERALD'S—for the Advancement of MUSIC

KNABE furnished for 1300 appearances in one year

During the past year Fitzgerald's have provided KNABE instruments for 1300 local appearances. Some of these were such giants of the Concert Stage as Ornstein, Leginska, Rosenthal, Nyiregyhazi, Titta Ruffo and Ponselle, who use the KNABE exclusively because it is the only instrument that gives them a combination of power, resonance and sweetness of tone.

Other appearances of the KNABE were at public recitals, concerts, musicales and private music affairs given at clubs, lodges, churches and societies.

This great demand for the KNABE is due to its supreme tonal quality—made to fill vast auditoriums with waves of harmony or to sing softly in the home.

ELIHU ROOT says:

"I have come to the distinct conclusion that by far the best, and indeed, almost the only practical way of guarding against the possible ruinous loss by a forced sale of securities for the purpose of paying the various estate and inheritance taxes that are being imposed nowadays, both by the national and state governments, is by means of life insurance, which, for a moderate annual payment, will insure the sum necessary to pay such taxes without the sacrifice of the securities."

F. L. LIPMAN, President of the Wells-Fargo Nevada National Bank, says:

"We have the highest opinion of the utility and necessity of life insurance for all prudent, far-seeing men. When dealing with a loan application where the advance is not fully covered by marketable collateral we consider the carrying of life insurance as an important factor in forming our judgment as to a man's business ability and prudence."

"Mr. Luboviski is the best violinist in the West, and very few come to us from the outside who play so well."—Isabel Morse Jones, in the Illustrated Daily News.

"The playing of Calmon Luboviski can be favorably compared with that of the great violinists who have visited Los Angeles."—Florence Lawrence, in the Examiner.

"Calmon Luboviski triumphed last evening during a violin program when virtuoso technic, mastery of classic style and beauty of tone were matched superbly."—Bruno David Ussher, in the Express.

"I class him as one of the few really great violin soloists."—Pacific Coast Musical Review.

"Among the stars of the musical world, Calmon Luboviski, the violinist, occupies a very prominent place."—Paul Becker, in the Frankfurt Zeitung.

"They crowded Ebell Club Auditorium last night to the last chair to hear him in recital. And they broke all polite traditions of the concert hall by applauding him not only with hand clapping, but with shouted 'bravos,' whistling and foot stamping."—William Prohme, in the Examiner.

ON HEARING BLOCH'S HEBRAIC FUNERAL SONG AT THE BOWL

Cries crashing among the steel of snapping stars
That shower their keen echoes on a high flung head.
Cries tossing savage questions at God, melting bars
Of music across cool skies, that swirl, and spread.

Rhythms tumbling on rhythms, groping and taut
For the one untamed and perfect symmetry,
That in a swift leap, swings free, and all is caught.
Sky and earth and sea, caught, and made one with me.

And now a lull, and questing sounds are drifted
Thru undulating air. Icy drops drip snow
Upon my eyes, gently, and I am lifted,
Torn and lifted, and I know not where to go.

Now the little breath that was stricken from my soul
Twists its thousand edges deep in me, oh, deep . . .
And my heart is nothing but a jagged hole,
And I can weep slow, steady tears. I can weep.

Judith Tractman.

If Ol' King Cole, the mer-ry old soul, In Hol-ly-wood now could be. Would he

STEINWAY

THE INSTRUMENT OF THE IMMORTALS

Rachmaninoff composing at his Steinway

To-day's achievement honors the traditions of the past

The production of a piano whose perfection delights the masters is but the beginning of the supremacy of Steinway craftsmanship. The Steinway is made in styles and sizes suitable even for the smallest home. And in these smaller instruments is found still greater evidence of Steinway influence upon piano manufacture.

For your home you may select a Steinway whose every excellence matches the one which thrills you from the concert stage. The light, responsive action, the sonorous, singing tone, the remarkable durability, these things are yours to enjoy when you come into possession of a Steinway.
